British Act Called "Silly" by Prelate

PENZANCE, England, Aug. 9 (By The Associated Press).—Archbishop Mannix was landed here from a destroyer at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon. It was said he intended to proceed to London. The archbishop refused to give out a statement.

The archbishop landed from the destroyer in a motor launch, then went to the railway station, where his baggage was examined by a customs officer.

Prelate Visits Penzance Priest

From the railway station the archbishop went to the home of Canon Wade, the Roman Catholic priest in Penzance, remaining there some time. When asked by the correspondent if he cared to say anything about his mission to England, Archbishop Mannix replied:

"I have no mission to England: My landing in England was involuntary. I had no desire to go to England, but wanted to go to Ireland. Ireland is my home. I am a native of Ireland and it is seven years since I left. It is about time I returned. I have lived in Australia the whole time since."

Few people witnessed the arrival of the prelate. He remained at the home of Canon Wade until his departure on the night train for London. It is understood here that the prelate is at liberty to travel where he pleases. There is no restriction on his movements, but he is being watched by the police, who are keeping him under observation, but they were not interfering in any way with his movements.

It was reported this afternoon that the archbishop would go by train direct to London.

Penzance lies virtually at the extreme southwest tip of England, 150 miles northwest of London, on the Cornish coast. It is a fashionable watering place, owing to its singularly mild though moist climate, but is extremely remote from other populous centers.

Mannix Arrested on Ship

LONDON, Aug. 9 (By The Associated Press).—Four British destroyers closed in on the steamship Balie off the Irish coast in the early hours of this morning and the commander of the destroyer Wivern, with two Scotland Yard detectives, went aboard and placed Archbishop Mannix under arrest. They escorted the prelate, with his secretary, the Reverend Albert Vaughan, to a destroyer, which steamed toward Fishguard, where orders had been given to the British destroyer to take the archbishop to London.

Thus the question of the landing place of Archbishop Mannix, which for many days has been under discussion by Irishmen everywhere, as well as the public in general, was answered. London newspapers are all complexly interested in the archbishop's arrival. They are unanimous in describing the affair as a "blunder." All the provincial papers take the same view.

PLYMOUTH, England, Aug. 9 (By The Associated Press).—"I think the government is making it worse for themselves than for me. They are putting me to a little inconvenience, but are making themselves very silly."

Thus spoke Archbishop Mannix, of Australia, to six priests and a few reporters in a meeting held in the city of Plymouth at 10:30 o'clock to-night from Penzance. "I think the people of Ireland," the archbishop added, "know their business as well as the people over here. I was not going there to tell the people my views at all, because they have made up their own minds without any reference to me."

Archbishop Mannix chatted for several minutes at the station, during which he referred without comment to the removal from the ship of the restrictions placed on his movements. He proceeded on the train for London.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9.—The White Star liner Baltic, which brought Archbishop Mannix, of Melbourne, from America, arrived here this afternoon. The dock was crowded with Irish delegations that intended to welcome him. Among them were the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Count Plunkett, and the Dail Eireann (Irish Parliament) Councillors. Outside the barriers, where they were held in check by constables of police, were several Sinn Fein banners, white and orange, and the "Irish Republic."

As the Baltic swung into the dock, a Sinn Fein man with a megaphone roared out: "Welcome, Mannix! From the ship's deck the faint response: 'Put off; he's been put off!'"

Absence Causes Dismay

Dismay spread through the throng gathered to do honor to the radical Irishman, whose presence the Sinn Fein leaders have given to him to suffer late. It was not until the liner was alongside and those on the dock

Countess Szechenyi Shocked by Lightning

SYRACUSE, Aug. 9.—A dispatch from Raquette Lake says that guides on the Harry Payne Whitney preserve brought word to-day that Countess Laszlo Szechenyi, formerly Gladys Vanderbilt, of New York, was suffering from the effects of a slight lightning shock received near Forked Lake on Sunday afternoon. Efforts to obtain further information as to the Countess's condition were thwarted, owing to failure of telegraphic and telephonic communication to Raquette Lake, as the result of a severe thunder and lightning storm.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Franklin D. Roosevelt formally accepted the nomination for Vice-President of the United States on the Democratic ticket here this afternoon. The ceremony occurred on the front lawn of Springwood, the old Roosevelt estate, five miles north of Poughkeepsie. The candidate's speech of acceptance had for its main theme the League of Nations and the peace treaty. He declared that peace by resolution would prove unworkable and would be an insult to the nation and a denial of our national purpose. The country's success in the war and on land and sea, he said, was only a half victory. The other half could not be achieved without ratification of the Wilson treaty of peace and inclusion of the League of Nations. Anything else, Mr. Roosevelt declared, would be a thinly disguised armistice devised by politicians.

The League of Nations, the candidate stated, was "a practical solution of a practical situation." He added that it was no more perfect than our original Constitution, which had been amended eighteen times and which he hoped to see amended the nineteenth. This statement brought a cheer from the many women who heard the speech.

In dealing with the problems confronting the next Administration Mr. Roosevelt called for a general reorganization of what he termed our "archaic governmental machinery" and drastic changes in the governmental structure. He declared himself opposed to the "saloon-bossed city," but made no other allusion to the liquor question.

Would Extend Education

Another policy for which the Vice-Presidential candidate said he stood was the extension of education to the masses. He said that the country's population who could neither read nor write and the protection of child life and women in industry. The speech of acceptance seemed to meet with considerable response from the crowd of 5,000 persons which had gathered to witness the notification formalities.

Many relatives and lifelong friends of the Roosevelt family were in the audience. Although a "Tammany Special" reached Poughkeepsie early in the afternoon with sixteen cars and 600 New York Democrats on board, the Roosevelt family had been in the audience of the nomination was distinctly local. The greater part of it was drawn from Poughkeepsie and Hyde Park, and most of the balance was made up of Democratic delegations from various parts of Dutchess County.

The "Tammany Special" which arrived over the New York Central brought 1,000 persons to the station. Charles F. Murphy failed to appear, although it was said early in the day that he was sure to be there. When the train arrived, none of its passengers responded definitely where the leader was, but the managers of the notification ceremony said they felt convinced he was coming out from New York by automobile. A great gray automobile had been in the depot and all eyes were turned toward it. The Governor reached Poughkeepsie by automobile before the arrival of the "Tammany Special," but he attracted no more than passing attention from the populace, who went to the station in a body to get a view of the Tammany chieftain. The constable expressed the feeling of the thronging throng as he drove madly toward the depot in a one-horse "shay." Some- (Continued on page 3)

$500,000 for De Valera To Use in U. S. Election

London Newspaper Says He Was Authorized to Spend Money Politically

LONDON, Aug. 9.—"The Evening Standard" asserts it has documentary evidence that a Sinn Fein Congress in June authorized Eamon de Valera, "President of the Irish Republic," to expend $500,000 "in connection with the campaign for the Presidency of the United States." One million dollars in expenditure by De Valera was authorized to obtain recognition of the Irish Republic, the newspaper declares. According to "The Standard," the Dail Eireann ("Irish Republican Parliament") authorized De Valera to send a diplomatic mission to the Russian Soviet and to various governments of Europe and America and appointed De Valera, James O'Mara and Bishop Fogarty, of Killaloe, trustees of the Dail Eireann funds.

Ponzi Sued As Bankrupt By Creditors

Financial Wizard Will

Banking Commissioner

Bank Forbidden to Cash His Checks

He Says He Is Solvent and That Examination of Books Will Prove It

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—Charles Ponzi, "financial wizard," announced to-night that he would "not pay out one cent of money" to-morrow at his offices. Earlier in the day involuntary bankruptcy proceedings had been instituted against Ponzi by three creditors and Joseph C. Allen, State Bank Commissioner, had issued an order to the Hanover Trust Company not to pay out any money on checks of Ponzi or his agents.

Ponzi made the following statement: "Though I anticipate there will be a smart run on my company after to-day's developments I will not pay the notes that have run forty-five days. 'The Hanover Trust Company would gladly honor these checks and cash them, but the Bank Commissioner says that this cannot be done. 'In the Hanover Trust Company I have two accounts. My personal account is over a million and a half, more than six times the amount I have out in notes. But the Bank Commissioner has refused to permit me to transfer my personal account to the other one. By what authority I do not know.'"

The Attorney General to-night ordered the following advertisement published:

Call on Note Holders
"All persons holding unpaid notes of the Securities Exchange Trust Company or of Charles Ponzi are requested to notify, in person or by mail, the department of the Attorney General, giving the number and date of the note, the amount loaned and the amount due, the place where the loan was made and the address of the holder. A copy of this notice should be furnished where possible. This information is desired in completing the investigation now being made by the department in the affairs of Charles Ponzi, who rose to fame on his '50 per cent in 45 days' proposition, came on the day on which he had declared his net worth at $1,000,000,000."

The bankruptcy suit was filed by Charles Cantwell, James Fernald and Harry Farrell, all of Boston, the alleged creditors of Ponzi. They had favored other creditors by transferring large parts of his assets to them, including Charles F. Hoffman. The three petitioners had invested from $100 to $300 each in Ponzi's scheme. Hoffman, an Italian, who he claimed to have made $9,000,000 profits since last fall. Bank Commissioner Allen made the following announcement: "I have directed the Hanover Trust Company not to pay any more checks of Charles Ponzi, the Securities Exchange Company, or any of his agents, including that of Lucy Marshall, trustee, against which these checks are charged, is overdrawn."

No Sign of New Company

While the new $100,000,000 company, "The Charles Ponzi Company," may have come into existence to-day, there was no sign of it in the offices of Ponzi offices. All the business transferred there had to do with the enterprise of the past, although a number of the company's employees were known when they could invest money in the new undertaking. Among them was Louis F. Mantani, of Portsmouth, N. H., who he announced he represented many Italians in that city. "When Attorney General Allen starts in to ascertain what his liabilities are I will give him all the help possible. As the company is finished I will show him the money to cover them. But he is endeavoring to find out my assets, where they are and how I made my money, and nobody knows that but Charles Ponzi, and nobody else is going to know," he will die before I disclose these facts to anybody. "That I am solvent there is not the slightest doubt in anybody's mind. I am not going to cover them.
